

Awards

At each graduation ceremony, the Graduate School of Library and Information Studies honors outstanding students with the following awards. Please contact the GSLIS office for more information about how to qualify.

The Betsy Movchine Award

For the student who has contributed most to the betterment of student life in the past year

The David Cohen Multicultural Award

Honors the student or alumnus who has exhibited a firm commitment to serving multicultural, multiethnic and multilingual minorities

The Linda Richardson Award

In recognition of the student emulating the personal and intellectual qualities of Linda Richardson

The Lori Fischer Award

For the student with the highest grade-point average

The Distinguished Alumnus/Alumna Award

Recognizes a graduate's significant contribution to the discipline and the profession

On Aug 19, 2014, GSLIS has received additional scholarship funds from Adam Conrad, husband of the late QC alumnus, Ellen Libretto. The Conrad - Libretto Memorial Scholarship fund has been established, with $50,000 to start up, for GSLIS scholarships to students pursuing a career in children and young adult literacy. Money will be available for the 2015 Spring semester.